

MOVIE RENTAL ANALYTICS

MECE BREAKDOWN

| Dashboard          | Scope                                                                                | Sub-Areas Covered                                                                                                                                    | Key Visuals Used                                                                                                     | Business Questions Answered                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Overview Dashboard | High-level snapshot of entire business performance                                   | - Total Revenue - Total Rentals - Active Customers - Total Films - Inventory Utilization - Revenue by Month - Store Comparison                       | - KPI Cards (5) - Area Chart - Horizontal Bar Chart - Filled Map - Donut Chart - Navigation Buttons                  | - What is overall business performance? - Which month had peak revenue? - How are the two stores performing? - Where are customers located globally? - What is the inventory utilization rate?                                        |
| Sales & Revenue    | Revenue trends, payment patterns and category-level sales performance                | - Monthly Revenue Trends - Revenue by Category - Store Revenue Comparison - Payment Analysis - Rental Rate Analysis                                  | - Line Chart (Monthly) - Clustered Bar Chart - Clustered Column Chart - KPI Cards (4) - Category & Store Slicers     | - Is revenue increasing over time? - What are the peak rental periods? - Which film categories generate most revenue? - How do Store 1 and Store 2 compare monthly? - What is the average payment per transaction?                    |
| Customer Analysis  | Customer behavior, segmentation, geographic distribution and spending patterns       | - Customer Segmentation - Active vs Inactive Analysis - Geographic Distribution - Top Customer Identification - Rental Frequency vs Spend            | - Donut Charts (2) - Horizontal Bar Charts (2) - Scatter Plot - KPI Cards (4) - Segment & Store Slicers              | - Who are the top spending customers? - Where are customers located by country? - What % of customers are active vs inactive? - Which customer segment dominates? - Is there a correlation between rentals and spend?                 |
| Film & Inventory   | Film catalog analysis, inventory distribution, rental demand and content performance | - Film Category Performance - Rating Distribution - Top Rented Films - Rentals by Category - Rental Duration Buckets                                 | - Horizontal Bar Charts (3) - Donut Chart - Column Chart - KPI Cards (5) - Rating & Category Slicers                 | - Which films are rented most frequently? - Which categories drive the most rentals? - How is inventory distributed across ratings? - What rental duration is most common? - What is the average film length and rental rate?         |
| Key Insights       | Synthesized business insights, data limitations, and strategic recommendations       | - Sales & Revenue Insights - Customer Insights - Film & Inventory Insights - Overall Business Insights - Data Limitations - Business Recommendations | - Text Boxes (formatted) - Color-coded Sections - Bullet-point Insights - Recommendations Panel - Data Source Footer | - What are the key takeaways from all dashboards? - What are the business risks and opportunities? - What actions should management prioritize? - What are the limitations of this dataset? - How can revenue seasonality be reduced? |